

2011 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD PROGRAM

NOHIMA has expanded its Scholarship Award Program to allow both student and established HIM professionals to apply for funds. The following information explains the scholarship program's policy, qualifications, application procedure and provides separate application forms for the student member and established professional.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM POLICY

- ✓ This Scholarship Program is available only to NOHIMA members. HIM/HIT students and established professionals may apply for funds available through NOHIMA.
- ✓ On an annual basis, the NOHIMA Board of Directors will grant awards(s) from scholarship applications received. During the annual budget process, the NOHIMA Board of Directors will allocate specific dollars for this program. Additional funds may be available from corporate sponsors.
- ✓ The dollar amount of the scholarship grant will be solely at the discretion of the NOHIMA Board of Directors. The reimbursement available may vary each year due to the budget or corporate sponsorship. The total amount may be awarded to one individual or distributed among several applicants. Unused scholarship funds may be rolled over from one year to the next year. The scholarship award amounts for each year appear on the application form for that year.
- ✓ Individuals serving on the NOHIMA Board of Directors are not eligible for funds during their term.
- ✓ Scholarship awards for the student scholarship applicant may be applied to books, tuition, or fees for taking the RHIT or RHIA exam. Only expenses that are the responsibility of the applicant are eligible, and funds reimbursed by another group, such as an employer, corporate agency or government body are not eligible. Funds will be awarded only for expenses paid during the current business year. Proof of HIM/HIT program enrollment, cumulative GPA and successful college course completion must accompany the scholarship application form.
- ✓ Scholarship awards for the established HIM professional must be applied to professional activities related to lifelong learning such as books, newsletters, seminar registrations, software programs, OHIMA or AHIMA events, or course tuition. Courses and other materials must be related to the advancement of the applicant's work in the HIM profession. Only expenses that are the responsibility of the applicant are eligible, and funds reimbursed by another group, such as an employer, NOHIMA Scholarship Award Program, corporate agency or government body are not eligible. Funds will be awarded only for expenses paid during the current business year. Receipt of payment and proof of participation in any of the above listed activities must accompany the scholarship application form.
